Greetings to Bright Hills!

Winter is fast approaching and the time for projects by the fire has begun! I encourage everyone to check out the many guilds that Bright Hills has to offer

Cooks Guild
Armorers Guild
Textile Arts Guild (TAG)
Woodworkers Arts Guild (WAG)
Bardic Arts Guild (BAG)
Our restarted Costumers Guild
The Worshipful Company of St. Mathias
The soon to be restarted Blacksmith's Guild

You can get more information and contacts here: <http://www.brighthills.net/guilds/guilds.htm>

We are a very diverse barony and our populace has interests that run the gamut from the arts, to martial, to scholarly, to the sciences. If you are looking for information, post your question to the Bright Hills list and if someone does not know the answer we will try to find a contact for you.

We also have our regular weekly Fighter Practice and A&S night. It is Fridays from 7:30-10:00 pm. We ask that everyone please make a small donation of $1.00 each time you attend. The church does not formally charge us a fee for use of the hall. They just ask for donations.

I also encourage you to submit short articles, poetry, interesting bits and bobs, and art work to be published in the Yeoman. It is an easy way to share what you know and expand our knowledge of the Middle Ages.

And as you have heard me say in the past-
"Come on people, Make something!"

Yours,
Baroness Martelle von Charlottenburg, O'L
Baroness of Bright Hills

The morning of the 27th day of October, Anno Societatis 42, being 2007 Gregorian, dawned grey and drear. Our cart being mired on the approaching roads, Lady Alexandria Wright did graciously step in to act as Her Excellency's voice at the morning court.

After words of welcome and praise, Baroness Martelle von Charlottenburg did then honor Tsura the Elder with the Order of Tessa, for though she is new to our lands, her hall decoration and willing hands have made her a welcome addition.

As the day progressed and the rains ceased, Baroness Martelle saw fit to hold a court in the late afternoon. The hall was bedecked with all manner of nautical and piratical accoutrement, and many of our Barony came to warm the hall with their presence.

At this time, Her Excellency did open court, give thanks to all who braved the storms, and called forth the autocrat, Lady Daniella Schwartzhaupt, to give her comments upon the day.

Next, the Baroness called forth her champions of the realm: Lord Fulk the Bald, her heavy champion, Lady Constanza de Talevera, her rapier champion, Treya min Teanga, her archery champion, Lady Brienna Llewellyn Lindsay, her arts and sciences champion, and Baroness Roana de Laci, her brewing champion. Her Excellency thanked all these champions for their service over the past year, and asked them kindly if they were ready to resign their post to make way for her new champions who were chosen that day. All graciously stepped down, handing in their regalia, with the exception of Baroness Roana, who was asked to retain her post for another year, and accepted the offer.

Then did Her Excellency call forward the new champions: Lord Karchar the Blue Eyed, her new heavy champion, Lord Richard ffaukes, her new rapier champion, Fearghus MacDomhnaill, her new archery champion, and Tsura the Elder, her new arts and sciences champion. Each new champion was asked if they would continue the level of service laid down by their predecessor and if they would loyally serve the Barony, to which each agreed.

The champions being dismissed, Baroness Martelle called into her presence Lady Aoife inghean Roibeard ui Ruadhain, Edmund atte Yeo, and their son Logan, and presented them with a banner of the Baronial device to take with them as they travel to Drachenwald to conquer more lands for the Bright Hills.

Heinrich, Baron Bright Hills, requested time in the court, and used this forum to thank Lord Kollack von Zweckel for acting as Baronial warlord at the Pennsic Wars. He also thanked several of the Barony's marshals, and gifted three of these with a special favor. The marshals of the various disciplines came forward and announced the winners of the days trials and awarded prizes for such. Before returning to his seat, His Excellency called forth his own son, Lord Albrecht, and announced the boys betrothal to his lady, Kat, and honored the pair of them with a sword with which to protect their household.

Another audience was requested, this time by Lord Robert Runewald from the Barony of Lochmere. In thanks for our allowing Lochmere to hold a tourney on Baronial lands, Lord Robert presented Her Excellency Martelle with a fine cheese, and declared that more gifts awaited her at the hands of Their Excellencies of Lochmere.

Baroness Martelle did then request the presence of Lady Alexandria Wright, who has worked tirelessly to compile an order of precedence of all those inhabiting the Barony. For this great feat, Lady Alexandria was gifted with the Order of the Golden Shell, the personal award of Her Excellency.

At the Pennsic Wars, several of our warriors distinguished themselves upon the field of battle. One such was Lord Werner der Fromme, who was grievously injured fighting for our cause. In the course of his injury, his set of Baronial colors were lost. It was at this time that Her Excellency called him forth to receive a new set of colors.

The Baroness called next Alexander Fowler, who has proven himself to be a fine minister of the lists. He has even assisted other Baronies with this task when called to do so, and has done so without complaint. For this great service, Alexander was awarded the Order of the Augean Stables.

Then did Her Excellency call into her court Lord Luke of Bright Hills. This good noble had taken a fading guild, the Woodworkers Guild, and revived it to a level of pride and usefulness. He was given a Baronial Award of Excellence by the hand of the Baroness for his work.

As her last piece of official business at this afternoon court, Baroness Martelle called into her presence Lord Gustav Emile der Dunkele Rotvogel, and for his efforts to teach and promote the arts of archery, he was honored with the Order of the Silverberg.

When all was done, the winners of the arts and sciences competitions were announced, and the prizes were given in turn.

This herein closed the afternoon court of Her Excellency, Martelle von Charlottenburg, Baroness of the Bright Hills.

As the evening waned, and feast was served, Her Excellency decided to hold a third court, the purpose of this one to honor those who had spent their time in the kitchens and feast hall arranging all, and thus had missed her earlier court.

First, the head cooks, Lady Orlaith Carey and Lady Tirzah MacCrudden, along with their staff, were called into the hall so that they could receive thanks and gratitude from all those assembled.

When they had left, Meisterin Johanna von Sudeborn, with Her Excellency's permission, announced that she was taking Heinrich, Baron Bright Hills, as a protégé in a small ceremony following the feast.

Then did Baroness Martelle call forth Travis of Bright Hills, a new warrior who had fought valiantly for the Barony at the Pennsic Wars, and gave him his own set of Baronial colors.

For her skill in wire weaving and her willingness to teach the skill to any and all who showed interest, Lady Ingeborg i Trondheim was called before Her Excellency, and given the award of the Order of the Silver Scroll.

Then did the Baroness call into her court Lord Bruce the Robert. Though he is not from our lands, he travels far and gives his hands to work for many of the Barony's causes. For this he received the Order of Job.

There being no further business, the feast court of Her Excellency was closed, and all resumed eating and merriment.

As Witnessed by My Hand,
Lady Aoife inghean Koibeard ui Kuadhain

I. Officers' Reports

A. *Chatelaine

Lady Yselte reports that lots of new people have been showing up – and coming back. Classes on Friday seem to be helping – attracting new interest and demonstrating some of the arts that support the SCA. She is very hopeful that the UMBC group will take off. (she has contact information)

B. *Chronicler

Lady Akiyo was not in attendance. Report was filed on time. September / October Yeoman has been posted, with her apologies for its delay. She reports that work has started to effect her ability to do her job as Chronicler, so she is looking for a successor. A letter in the Yeoman describes the duties of the office, and the required skills / tools. Anyone who is interested should please contact her as soon as possible.

Baron Heinrich asks that the corrections submitted by the MOAS be included in the next Yeoman.

1. *Webminister

There have been no changes except to the event flyers. Any changes must be sent directly to Lady Brienna in writing / via e-mail.

A copy of the bill or some sort of receipt is needed in order for Baroness Roana to write the check for the domain registration. Lady Brienna will e-mail the invoice and Lady Yseulte will print it out.

Lady Brienna would like to redesign the website and is looking for input. Please send suggestions to her. She will collect them and bring them to the officers for discussion.

2. *Listkeeper

Lady Reyne was not in attendance. There is no change to her report.

C. *Exchequer

Baroness Roana reports that we have money, and asks that we please not spend it all.

Reservations are coming in for TNT. As always, the only real reservation is a paid reservation. Everyone should please remember to include both modern and SCA names, and a description of what is covered by the amount enclosed (site fees. feast. 3 adults, etc.).

Quarterly report ill be submitted on time, before TNT.

1. *Steward

Master Chirhart reports that we have stuff. He received the list for TNT from Lady Danielle. The trailer will be ready for pick up Friday afternoon.

There as a question related to insurance for the trailer, which as addressed by Lady Yseulte and Baron Temur.

D. *Herald

Lady Aiofe submitted her report. There are no changes to the report, but she has receipts.

She has had several communications with the prospective herald from the UMBC incipient group.

Milord Bors MacGregor, the new deputy Herald, who will step up when Lady Aiofe sets out across the seas, was introduced and welcomed.

E. Knight's Marshal

Lord Stephen reports that his quarterly report was submitted on time. Sufficient collections have been received to secure the Wednesday site for next year.

1. Rapier

He has the $330 which was won in the prize tourney at Pennsic. The monies have been received by the Exchequer, who will write the check.

There was a brief discussion regarding replacement of a gear bag. fThe Exchequer indicated that approved funds were available.

We have a new warranted rapier marshal as well as a new youth rapier marshal

At Crusades, Atlantia took the rapier point (3 champions from Bright Hills). Vivat!

2. Heavy Weapons

Baron Heinrich reports that there is renewed focus on restricting non-period items on the field; apparently sneakers were an issue at the War of Wings.

House Wolfshaven (and all Bright Hills heavy fighters) have been invited by Duke Cuan and Duke Michael to join them for a day of training.

3. Archery

Lord Seamus submitted his report. The Bright Hills archers have been in fine form and have been bringing great glory to the Barony.

F. MOAS

Lord Denis and others in attendance discussed additional information for report:

*The stocking class at fighter practice went really well.

*Lady Faye de Trees provided a dance class on Friday, 10/6. The current plan is to continue on the first Friday of the month (in garb).

*Everything is on track for TNT.

1. Armourer's Guild

There are 2 new folks working in the shop. Additional projects are in the works.

2. Cooks' Guild

The Cooks met last week at Lord Seamus O'Loughlin's. Dame Olwen led a workshop on presentation, including the making of a vegetable bouquet. The next meeting is the second Sunday in November (11/11), at Lady Brienna and Lord Gustav's home. We will continue to discuss presentation, with marzipan, fondant and sugar plate.

3. Tag / Bag / Wag

The October meeting of Tag will be held on 11/4 at Lady Wynn's home.

No one was present to report on Wag and Bag, although both groups appear to be very active.

4. St. Matthias

A virtual meeting was held. The Guild will have 3 copies of "All Things SCAdian" made, and put into loose leaf binders, so that specific pages can be handed out. This continues to be a work in progress. If anyone has additional sources or references, please get them to the Guild for inclusion.

St. Matt's would also like to remind everyone that they are here to serve, especially to help newcomers settle in.

They will be merchanting at Holiday Faire. If you have items to donate, please contact them as soon as possible. Please note that any items should be in very good condition (only gently used).

G. MOL

All is quiet and there's nothing to report locally. In the Kingdom, progress continues on formalizing the youth combat program.

H. Seneschal

Mistress Bec met with the Kingdom and Regional seneschals at Kingdom Crusades. Paperwork for the warrant has been sent. Baron Temur has stepped forward to serve as Deputy Seneschal. Both Mistress Bec and His Excellency Temur took the Seneschal 101 and Seneschal 102 class last weekend.

Baroness Roana has the paperwork for changes to the list of signatories for the checking account. The question was raised regarding any conflict with 2 signatories at the same residence. Her Excellency will check on this and report back.

I. Baroness

The cloak project is progressing; badges are being embroidered; fabric (linen) is being investigated.

The schedule has been very hectic and it has been a great tourney season. Thanks to all who have been so supportive, and for making the barony look good. Also appreciated was the response to cover mundane items.

The Baroness's schedule for the next month includes TNT (of course), Holiday Faire, the Dun Carraig event, and Unevent. Details will be posted. There are plans for a light lunch at Holiday Faire.

II. Old Business

A. TNT

Lady Daniela gave a detailed report on the upcoming event. All preparations are well under way. The site opens at 5 on Friday. There will be a fundraiser spaghetti dinner to benefit our fighter practice site. Saturdays' breakfast will also be a fundraiser for the same cause. A detailed site map has been produced. Troll is at the concession stand this year. Kid's activities will include the Halloween party, with Trick or Treating, as usual.

B. Baronial Birthday

Lady Aiofe reports that plans are going well. The theme is a Feast of Fools. The feast will start with dessert (since rarely do folks get to eat dessert at a Cooks' Guild feast, since they have been fed into submission).

III. New Business

A. Lochmere Request

Lord Robert Runewald petitioned for permission to hold an event on a site within our territory. They have lost the use of the traditional site for On Target. They would like to use the Baltimore Bowmen site. The date will be the last Saturday in May (which will be after Memorial Day weekend), so there will be no conflict with our May event. The current plan is for a one day event (no camping). Nothing is required from us other than our permission. The request actually covers the next 2 years (2008 and 2009). Lord Seamus spoke in support of granting permission, citing the quality of the event and Lord Robert's support of Bright Hills. The vote to grant permission was unanimous.

B. *Kingdom Archery Championship

Lord Seamus reported that, as is his duty, he has begun to plan the next Kingdom Archery Championship event. The tentative date is June 20-22. His co-autocrat will be Lady Cassie (aka Lady Bob). The site will be the Baltimore Bowmen. He would like permission to begin working on the event. His request was approved.

C. *Promotional Activities for Events

Baroness Chagan opened a discussion on event promotion. Several recent events in the Kingdom have been introduced very creatively. When information on the activities is presented early, and in detail, it helps to develop more interest in the event, and to encourage more participation. Baroness Roana already serves as a PR person – posting event information on a large number of lists. However, autocrats should strive to get more information on competitions and activities out as soon as possible. We will also try to be more creative in how information is presented. This discussion will continue.

Her Excellency has offered to serve as a deputy to the MOAS, for promotional activities. Please contact her if you have any ideas or questions.

D. *Officer Classes

On a related note, there was a brief discussion about taking advantage of the opportunity to hold required classes for officers at events. For example, Baron Temur will be holding the beginning Marshallate classes at TNT. Autocrats might want to consider hosting such classes at their events.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:50 p.m.

Correction from the October 2007 Yeoman:

MOAS: The last report was wrong about whom Baron Heinrich made the full suit of Gothic armor for, a private individual in Iceland not for the museum for whom he is a docent.

895N to 95N the TOP of 695 (go through tunnel). Take 695W towards TOWSON. Take next available exit (32B) Rt 1 North towards BEL AIR. Go to top of the hill to the intersection with RIDGE ROAD. Go RIGHT onto RIDGE ROAD (curvy road, be careful). After about 1/3 mile, you'll see PAUL'S MARKET on a corner. After that, we are the BIG GREEN TWO STORY HOUSE on the RIGHT. There are two driveways in a break in the hedges. We are the second one (the paved one).

Wednesday Evening Rapier (Weekly)

Catonsville Parks & Rec. Center, Catonsville, MD

Take your best route to 695 and Frederick Rd. (each direction has one exit only). At the top of the ramp, take Frederick Rd towards Ellicott City. Go two lights to Bloomsbury Rd and turn left on Bloomsbury. Go 1/3 mile to Catonsville Rec (old school building on your right). Use front entrance and go downstairs to double doors opposite stairs.

Sunday Fighter Training (Weekly)

Haus Charlottenburg, 9007 Meadow Heights, Randallstown, MD 21133, (443) 326-1499.

Take your best route to Baltimore Beltway 695./Exit 18 Liberty Road, Rt. 26/Randallstown (away from the city). Come out Liberty Rd approx. 3.5 miles and turn right on to McDonough Rd. This is a traffic light and the Maryland Farm Bureau is on the corner. After the bridge (about 8/10 of a mile) make the first left on to Meadow Heights Rd. We are the fourth house in on the left. Park anywhere on the street. Please call in the event of inclement weather.

Woodworkers' Guild & Bardic Circle (4th Sunday of the Month)

Lady Nina and Lord Luke of Bright Hills' house. 1020 Regester Avenue, Towson, MD 21239, (410) 377-6828.

Inner loop of Baltimore Beltway, 695 toward Towson. We live fairly close to the northern apex of the beltway. Take Loch Raven Blvd. (exit 29) from 695 (a few exits east of the York Rd. exit). Take Loch Raven Blvd. south, past Taylor Ave. intersection, go through two lights after Taylor, look for quick right onto Regester Avenue just over peak of a hill. (If you miss Regester Ave. don't despair: at next light make a right onto Loch Hill Rd., then left at stop sign onto Regester Ave. If you've gone too far on Loch Raven, you will reach Northern Parkway – a huge intersection.) Our house is at 1020 Regester – white house with porch on right with SCA-type banner hanging from a signpost on front lawn - large driveway. Plenty of parking on the south side (left side if coming from Loch Raven) of Regester Avenue if no room in driveway.

The last hill is the intersection of Silver Knoll and Lawrence Hill, turn left on to Silver Knoll. We are the fourth house on the left. I will have my banner in the front yard. The bestest way to get in touch with me is by phone!!! We will begin at 1:00 pm and end around 5:00 pm. Coffee will be on as will other warm beverages!
