Kingdom of Atlantia
August 2008
Anno Societatus XLII

From the Baroness...

Greetings to all in the Barony!

By the time you read this the Pennsic War will be upon us again! I hope everyone has a great time, fights hard and honorably, and greets old and new friends!

Thank you to Lady Catriona and Chagan, Bagshi for donating the materials and the embroidery on the new Atlantian Helm Mantles for our fighters. They are very handsome and I look forward to seeing a field of blue! If you did not get one at Pennsic let me know so that we can one made for you to wear at future wars.

Trial by Fire which is sponsored by the Bright Hills Cooks Guild will be held on Sunday August 31 at the home of Master Chirhart and Mistress Bec. Contact them or Dame Olwen the Odd (The Guild Mistress) for more information.

September and October will be very busy with Chalice of the Sun God, the Riverfest Demo, Lochmere investiture, University of Atlantia, and TNT just to name a few. Fortunately all will be within a reasonable driving distance this time.

My tentative schedule is:

August 31, Trial by Fire, BH Cooks Guild
September 13, Chalice of the Sun God, Barony of Ponte Alto
September 26, Barony of Lochmere Investiture
October 4 University of Atlantia, Barony of Storvic
October 24-26 TNT, Bright Hills

Yours,
Mistress Martelle von Charlottenburg, OL
Baroness of Bright Hills

From the Seneshal...

Happy August!

For those of you who are attending Pennsic, we will look forward to seeing you there. Have fun and travel safely!

For those of you who will not be attending this year, I hope that you have the chance to participate in some of the alternate events taking place.

On August 31, the Cooks' Guild is plotting another Trial by Fire Competition. Please refer to the information in this issue and take advantage of the opportunity to watch many of the baronial cooks in action. Then, Lady Yseulte and company have some marvelous plans for TNT in October. You can also look for more Friday night classes and activities.

In Service, I am

Jeanne Tenneur de Bec, OL, OP, CtB
Seneschale, Bright Hills

The meeting was called to order at 4:15 p.m.
There were 20 gentles in attendance.

I. Officers' Reports

A. Chatelaine

Lady Yseulte is out of town on business. Her report was submitted. There are no changes. She is contacting the Kingdom Chatelaine regarding a warrant for Mistress Barbara as deputy.

We have had a slowdown in the number of newcomer inquiries via the baronial Web site, but a few members have brought visitors with them to fighter practice, including Lady Ingeborg, and Katarzyna. The classes on simple garb offered by the Clothier's Guild have been popular and helpful in attracting newcomers, and I'd like to encourage them to continue them. After Pennsic, I hope to contact some of you to schedule more classes, since when they are publicized ahead of time, they help draw a crowd. Mistress Barbara Guimaria di Roberto has volunteered to become my deputy, and I have notified kingdom of my good fortune in having her assistance and guidance, since she has many years of experience with demos in our area.

B. Chronicler

His Excellency Temur reports that Lady Faye de Trees will be stepping up as Chronicler and Milady Dawn will be her deputy. The request for Lady Faye's warrant will be submitted in the next week or so. Lady Faye will begin to work on the August issue. 1. Listkeeper- Nothing to report.

C. Exchequer

Lord Magnus reports that we have money. The Q2 report was submitted electronically. Hard copy will be signed and submitted.

1. Steward- Master Chirhart reports that we still have stuff. As always, those desiring to use Baronial goods must contact him.

D. Herald

Milord Bors reports there are no changes to his report. He has been working with the other heralds in the barony to plan a monthly consultation night at fighter practice. At Crown Archery Lady Yseulte graciously heralded to court in my stead for which I am most indebted. The reports for which were all turned in to the proper authorities. As I have heard no complaints, I am presuming that it was most excellent.

E. Knight's Marshal

Lord Graham is busy with Pennsic preparations. Lord Kollack will be serving as the baronial warlord, since Baron Heinrich cannot attend. Lord Graham has not yet been listed on the Marshal's roster. Mistress Jeanne will follow up.

1. Rapier- No report.

2. Heavy Weapons- Nothing to add to the information above.

3. Archery- Rhys Cantor has been running a Tuesday night practice and working with some new archers and is doing a wonderful job teaching. Regular practice at fighter practice on Friday nights has been attended by about 10-15 archers on average. We have mixed up the practices with some novelty shoots. Kingdom Archery Championship has come and gone. It was a fantastic shoot and fun was had by all. The competition was designed for the most advanced archers and the very novice as well. Bright Hills again pulled off a great event. I have $100 from a collection at Kingdom Archery Championship for youth archery. I still would like $200 to upgrade our loaner gear.

F. MOAS

Report was submitted electronically..

1. Armourer's Guild- Plans for a symposium are continuing. A new crossover helmet design (for heavy and rapier) is being tested. Several pieces will be going to Pennsic for display.

2. Bards- The bardic arts are alive and well. They are enjoying making music and preparing for events to come, and they invite all interested parties to join them.

3. Brewers' Guild- No report.

4. Cooks' Guild- Trial by Fire is scheduled for Sunday, 8/31.

5. Tag - Watch the list for meeting announcements.

6. Wag- The woodworkers continue to be very active, as noted in Lord Luke's reports. There is another branch forming in the northwest corner of the barony.

7. St. Matthias- Activities are on hold until after Pennsic. They plan to hold a yard sale. The next silent auction will be at TNT.

8. Clothiers- The Clothiers are continuing the series of a class each month to make a specific clothing project, this month we held a class on ancient Greek clothing with a follow up class to make fibula (Greek safety pins) to hold our Greek garb on. In August we will hold a repeat of the fibula class due to popular demand.

G. MOL- Lord Hunter reports no activity in the barony this month. He assisted at Highland River Melees.

H. Webminister- The web site has been updated with current event information. Any changes must be sent directly to Lady Brienna in writing / via e-mail.

I. Seneschal- The warrant request for Lady Nina (who has offered to serve as Chancellor Minor) was submitted.

J. Baroness- Her Excellency does not have much to report. Pennsic baronial court will be on Sunday. The helm mantles will be presented then. Let her know if there are activities you would like her to attend. We have guard duty at Atlantian Royal on Monday.

II. Old Business-

A. Kingdom Archery – June 22

The event was a great success. The barony made about $250. The Mongol theme was well received and the bardic events went very well.

B. TNT – October

Lady Yseulte is working on the flyer. Other preparations are well under way. The event plans continue fermenting! The marshal in charge, Lord Stephen Bridewell, will be trying to recruit outside marshals for the heavy list, to enable more of our own fighters to compete for the baronial championship. Our current archery champion, Lord Fearghus, is hard at work planning the archery championship. I have also heard (indirectly) from our current bardic champion about his plans for that contest. I am planning a second site-tour/inspection trip, and looking at September 20 or October 11 as the most likely dates. Those interested in going, please let me know which of those dates works better for you. And I hope to use all possible means to arrange for good weather, including asking Mistress Barbara if her mother could arrange for St. Joseph's icon to be facing east that weekend... Those with questions, can email me at brunosharpy@yahoo.com, call me at work at 703-531-4828, or at home until 11 p.m. at 410-721-4752.

C. Day of Dance – January 3

This event was approved. It will be a dessert potluck.

D. Church Donations

There was a discussion on this topic. The consensus is that we will continue to collect donations. Lord Magnus has been tracking donations. We will probably try to donate at least $100/month.

III. New Business

A. Next Meeting – Sunday, August 14

B. Principality List

As a point of information, the officers should be aware that there is an interest group forming, to investigate moving toward a northern Atlantian principality. There has been no official contact yet.

C. Riverfest demo – September 13-14

The Riverfest demo is coming up. Contact Lady Catriona for details. Unfortunately, this year it conflicts with the Chalice of the Sun event.

D. Kingdom Arts & Sciences

Chagan Baghsi is submitting a bid for KASF in March 2009. She presented a bid which was reviewed and given preliminary approval by the officers. It will be submitted to Kingdom before Pennsic.

E. Fall Crown Tourney

Lord Robert Runewald, Seneschal for Lochmere was in attendance. Ponte Alto lost their site for Crown and is scrambling to find a new site. Lochmere is also investigating possible sites, in an effort to keep the event in the northern part of the kingdom. Lord Robert has requested assistance in locating potential suitable sites. The officers gave him several possible locations to investigate. He will let us know if further assistance is required.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:00 p.m.

My thanks to all who attended and participated.

By my hand, Jeanne Tenneur de Bec.

TNT 14 -- Treaties Not Turks
The First Crusade Arrives in Constantinople

DATE: October 24-26, 2008

SITE: Camp Spencer at Broad Creek Memorial Scout Reservation
1738 Peach Orchard Road, Street Maryland 21154 (same place we hosted May Crown in 2003).

It's autumn of 1096 and we're in Constantinople, the capital of a mighty empire that considers itself the successor to Rome as the center of learning and culture. As the western endpoint of the Silk Road and other caravan routes and a major seaport, it's also a major crossroads for commerce. Last year (in 1095) Emperor Alexius Comnenus asked the Pope for help fighting Turks who had conquered some of the Empire's subject cities in Asia Minor. What the Pope sent are Western Europeans of every nationality who are expecting the Emperor, as a fellow Christian, to support their effort to liberate Jerusalem from its Saracen owners.

So who's here? Just the French, English, Scots, Irish, Welsh, Italians, Germans, Spanish, Norse (some of whom are serving as the Emperor's personal guards), as well as Greeks, Russians, Poles, Slavs of every kind, Rom, merchants and mercenaries from the empires farther East, and Saracen (and Turkish) envoys. There are traders from every land, as well as doctors, scholars, churchmen, astrologers, sages, scribes, pilgrims, animal trainers, sailors, and, oh yes, a few (40,000) crusaders.

Martial activities: Selection of the new Bright Hills Heavy, Rapier, Archery, and Equestrian champions. Rapier events will feature several melee scenarios including woods, tavern and the time-honored Melee for Chocolate. Equestrian questions should be directed to Lady Nem. Her telephone number is (410) 692-9833 and her email address is: nrf642002@yahoo.com.

A&S activities: Selection of the new baronial Artisan, Brewer, and Bard, along with other contests and classes to be announced later. An original board game, featuring many of the varied forces in Constantinople, will be available in the "Sekunjabin Tavern" for play by children of all sizes. Tavern space will also be available for bards to congregate, sing, swap stories, share songs and brew mischief.

Children's activities: will be available during the day. The traditional Children's Feast/Halloween Party (including a piñata) will be held during the adult feast.

Merchants are welcome and should contact Lady Livia di Samuel, at abramsonsm@comcast.net or at (301) 807-5476.

The Saturday lunch (included in the site fee) and the evening feast will be prepared by the famed Bright Hills Cooks' Guild. For modest additional charges you can also purchase a spaghetti supper on Friday evening and breakfast on Saturday and Sunday mornings.

For those attending the feast, please bring treats to appease the small gremlins, goblins, ghosts and jinn who will trick-or-treat the hall.
